Privacy Policy

Effective from 24 October 2026.

Your privacy matters to me. This policy explains what data I collect through the website www.tzolkincalendar.com, why I collect it, how long I keep it and what rights you have. Data is processed in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679 – GDPR.

1. Who is responsible for your data

The data controller is Milly MirrorWitch, author of the Dreamspell Calendar website.
Contact for all privacy questions: milly@tzolkincalendar.com

2. What data I collect and why

| Where                                            | Data                                                                         | Purpose and legal basis                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|--------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Newsletter signup                                | full name, date of birth, email address                                      | Calculating and sending your Galactic ID and sending the newsletter. Basis: your consent (Art. 6(1)(a) GDPR), which you can withdraw at any time. You are subscribed only after you confirm your email address with the link in the confirmation email (double opt-in); until then your data is not added to the mailing list. |
| Contact form and email                           | name, email address, message content                                         | Replying to your inquiry. Basis: your request and the legitimate interest in replying to your message (Art. 6(1)(b) and (f) GDPR).                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Orders of e-books, readings or course enrollment | name, email address, note; payment data is processed by the payment platform | Delivering the purchased product and communicating about the order. Basis: performance of a contract (Art. 6(1)(b) GDPR) and legal obligations (Art. 6(1)(c)).                                                                                                                                                                 |

I never see or store your card details – they are processed directly and securely by Payhip and Stripe.

3. Cookies and tracking

The website does not use cookies for tracking, analytics or advertising. Fonts are served from the website's own server. For basic, anonymous visit statistics the site may use Cloudflare Web Analytics, which works without cookies and does not identify individual visitors.

When you enter your date of birth in a calculator, the website may remember it in your own browser (local storage), so you don't have to type it again. It stays only on your device, is not sent to me, and you can delete it at any time ("forget") or by clearing your browser data.

4. Who else processes data (processors)

To run the website I use reliable services that process data on my behalf and in accordance with the GDPR:

- Hetzner – website hosting and receiving form messages (servers in the EU);
- Brevo – sending the newsletter and automatic emails (EU);
- Zoho Mail – the email address milly@tzolkincalendar.com (servers in the EU);
- Payhip and Stripe – selling digital products and processing payments;
- Cloudflare – anonymous visit statistics without cookies.

Some of these services may transfer data outside the European Union (e.g. to the USA); such transfers take place with the appropriate safeguards provided by the GDPR (standard contractual clauses or the EU-US Data Privacy Framework). I do not sell, rent or share your data with others for marketing purposes.

5. How long I keep data

- Newsletter: until you unsubscribe. Every email has an "Unsubscribe" link at the bottom – one click is enough, and you are removed from the list immediately. If you don't confirm your signup, the confirmation link expires after 7 days and nothing is stored on the mailing list.
- Contact form messages and emails: for as long as the communication lasts, and no longer than two years after the last message.
- Purchase data: for as long as required by accounting and tax laws.

6. Your rights

At any time you have the right to:

- find out what data I hold about you and receive a copy of it;
- request the correction of inaccurate data;
- request the deletion of your data ("right to be forgotten");
- restrict processing or object to processing;
- request the transfer of your data to another controller;
- withdraw your consent (e.g. by unsubscribing from the newsletter), without affecting the lawfulness of earlier processing.

To exercise any of these rights, simply write to milly@tzolkincalendar.com. You will receive a reply within 30 days at the latest.

If you believe your data is being processed unlawfully, you have the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority – in the Republic of Croatia this is the Personal Data Protection Agency (AZOP, azop.hr) – or with the supervisory authority in the country where you live.

7. Security

The website runs over an encrypted connection (HTTPS). Only Milly – and, for technical maintenance, the administrator of the server – has access to the data. All services used protect data with modern technical and organizational measures.

8. Changes to this policy

This policy may be updated from time to time. The current version is always available on the website, in the footer of every page, with the date from which it applies.

With love,

Milly
